BEST CHRISTMAS BOOKS

Boys and Girls Know What They Want to Read

And with our wide experience we know what they want, and that they prefer good books to bad ones if only they are interesting. So here are some GOOD NEW AND INTERESTING BOOKS.

The Yale Cup

By A. T. DUDLEY

Sixth volume of "Phillips Exeter Series." Illustrated. $1.25

The "Cup" is an annual prize given by a club of Yale alumni to the member of the Senior class of each of several preparatory schools, who best combines athletic success with excellence in his studies.

The Boat Club Boys of Lakeport

By EDWARD STRATHEMER

Third volume of "Lakeport Series." Illustrated. $1.25

The "Lakeport Series" bids fair to equal in popularity the already famous "Dave Porter Series."

Four Boys on the Mississippi

By EVERETT T. TOMLINSON

Third volume of "Our Own Land Series." Illustrated. $1.00

The four friends of the previous volumes are on the mighty Mississippi. What they miss finding out or enjoying would not be worth mentioning.

The Hero of Pigeon Camp

By MARTHA JAMES

Third volume of "Pigeon Camp Series." Illustrated. $1.25

For the best kind of reading for boys from ten to fourteen the books of Martha James deserve prominent mention.

All Among the Loggers

By C. R. BURLING

First volume of "Norman Carver Series." Illustrated. $1.50

Besides being a first class story, this book contains more genuine information about the growth and culture of timber and the picturesque life of the loggers than has ever before been put in readable form.

At All Book Stores, or Sent Postpaid on Receipt of Price. LOTHROP, LEE & SHEPARD CO., Boston

Helen Grant, Graduate

By AMANDA M. DOUGLAS

Sixth volume of "Helen Grant Series." Illustrated. $1.25

Helen Grant continues post-graduate work at the college from which she has been graduated with honors, and finds her ability to instruct others more and more called into requisition.

A Little Heroine of Illinois

By ALICE TURNER CURTIS

First volume of "Little Heroine Series." Illustrated. $1.25

This genuinely good story for little girls, with plenty of interest for boys also, tells of the early days of the Civil War. A sensible and entirely pleasing story of a time now passed into history.

Dorothy Dainty's Gay Times

By AMY BROOKS

Seventh volume of "Dorothy Dainty Series." Illustrated by the Author. $1.00

The name of "Dorothy Dainty" has grown to be a household word wherever there are little girls, and each new book of this series seems better than the last.

Brave Little Peggy

By MINA RHODES

Eight volume of "Brick House Books." Illustrated. $1.00

All of Miss Rhodes's stories have a way of ending delightfully, and the general good taste which is an infallible characteristic of her books endures them to the favor which they enjoy.

The Story of Frederick the Great, for Boys and Girls

By KATE E. CARPENTER

Illustrated from famous paintings. $1.00

It is a very attractive book in every particular, with its large, clear type, and easy, pleasant style.

FOR YOUTHS OF ALL AGES AND BOTH SEXES

Uncle Hiram Ludlow frowned on college athletics in general and boat-crews in particular. But that was before he saw his nephew, the stroke oar, row on the college eight. Then, to quote one of the boys, "The old duffer cheered himself so hoarse he couldn't croak. The race carried him clean off his feet. On that last mile he was purple with excitement, and kept swatting me on the back with his umbrella in time with the stroke."

If You Want Some of that Same Excitement,
